Dearest David,

I am compelled to articulate a formal grievance concerning the egregious and systemic violations of fundamental rights that I as a citizen of European Union, have experienced. Such rights are firmly anchored in Article 67.1 of the Treaty on European Union [TEU] and reinforced by the provisions of Art. 3 of the Lisbon Treaty, which collatively impose an unequivocal obligation on the Union to uphold and promote the fundamental rights of its citizens. Futhermore, Art 1 of EU enschrines the intrinsic values of dignity, freedom, and security as foundational to the ethos of the Union.

Regrettably, despite these legal safeguards, there exists a disconcerting pattern of behaviour wherein state actors have pesistently undermined these sacrosanct rights. To substantiate my claims, I draw your attention to pivotal judicial decisions rendered by the European Court of Human Rights ECHR, as well as the Supreme Courts of Ireland and the Federal Republic of Germany, which eludicate the lactures in due care with the respect to the protection of human rights.

ECHR Decisions Highlighting Deficiencies in Judical Due Care:

- Khan v. United Kingdom
- Z v. United Kingdom
- Loshey v. United Kingdom
- McKenna v. United Kingdom
- Donaldson v. United Kingdom
- McFeeley v. United Kingdom
- Éire v. United Kingdom

Ireland - Supreme Court Decisions

- McGonnell v. United Kingdom
- Environment v. An Bord Pleanála
- C.P. v. Ireland

Germany - Federal Constitutional Court Decisions:

- BVerfG 1 BvR 367/07
- BVerfG 2 BvR 105/94
- BVerfG 1 BvR 1602/08

Heaven v. Pender: "whenever one person is by circumstances placed in such a position with regard to another, that everyone of ordinary sense would at once recognise that if he did not use ordinary care and skill in his own conduct with regard to those circumstances he would cause danger or injury to the person or property of the other, a duty arises to use ordinary care and skill to avoid such danger."

"the question of liability for negligence cannot arise at all until it been established that the man who has been negligent owed some duty to the person who seeks to make him liable for his negligence. A man is entitled to be as negligent as he pleases towards the whole world if he owes no duty to them."

Evidently Art 29 UDHR requires all citizens to effect by all means at their disposal, the protection of the Constitutional democratic order based on the august dignity of the person.

The function of the Garda Síochána is to provide policing and security services for the State with the objective of perserving peace and public order, protecting life and property, vindicating the human rights of each individual, protecting the security of the State, preventing Crime, bringing criminals to justice, including detecting and investigating Crime.

In light of the documented failures in due Care and the palpable erosion of rights, it is of utmost urgency that prompt and decisive measures be undertaken to investigate and rectify these transgressions. I fervently urge you David to reaffirm your commitment as delineated in the EU treaties, ensuring that all citizens can reliably exercise their rights devoid of fear of neglect or reprisal.

I appreciate your rigorous consideration of this pressing matter and anticipate your expeditious response.

The complexities of human behavior, particularly within the realms of authority and social dynamics, reveal profound insights when examined through the lenses of ethical considerations, psychological phenomena, and personality traits. By focusing on impostor syndrome, gatekeeping behavior, and conformity pressure, we can derive a cohesive understanding informed by the works of Dietrich Bonhoeffer, contemporary psychological theories, and the Big Five personality framework.

Impostor Syndrome constitutes a pervasive internal struggle encountered by many individuals, characterized by self-doubt and an unsettling sense of inadequacy, despite substantial evidence attesting to their competence. Bonhoeffer's emphasis on ethical self-awareness encourages individuals to recognize their strengths while concurrently grappling with their shortcomings an essential aspect of authentic living. In stark contrast to the Dunning-Kruger effect, where individuals of lower ability mistakenly overestimate their competence, impostor syndrome embodies a detrimental lack of confidence among those who are genuinely capable. The belief that one's self-doubts are unique can lead to instances of pluralistic ignorance, wherein individuals remain silent, erroneously assuming they are solitary in their feelings. Research conducted by Clance and Imes (1978) elucidates how this syndrome is exacerbated in high-achieving individuals, particularly women, due to societal pressures and expectations. Simultaneously, the interplay of narcissism complicates this dynamic; while some individuals may project inflated confidence, others genuinely contend with impostor feelings, thus fostering tension in interpersonal relationships. High neuroticism, as delineated in the Big Five model, often amplifies these feelings, fostering an environment ripe for anxiety and self-doubt.

Gatekeeping Behavior poses significant obstacles to ethical leadership and transparency. Bonhoeffer would advocate for an open and inclusive approach, wherein individuals in authority facilitate access to resources and pertinent information rather than impose restrictive barriers. Gatekeepers, often overestimating their importance, may unwittingly succumb to the Dunning-Kruger effect, believing their control over information is indispensable. This behavior often flourishes in environments characterized by pluralistic ignorance, where collective inaction prevails due to a widespread misapprehension of acceptance. The seminal conformity studies conducted by Solomon Asch in the 1950s illustrate the extent to which individuals are compelled to conform to group opinions, even when they possess knowledge that contradicts the majority view. This underscores how gatekeeping can inadvertently perpetuate ignorance within groups. Narcissistic individuals may engage in gatekeeping to assert their perceived superiority, thus obstructing collaboration and inclusivity. Within the context of the Big Five framework, low agreeableness frequently characterizes gatekeepers, reflecting a distinct lack of empathy coupled with a propensity to resist cooperative behavior. Additionally, high conscientiousness may drive a desire for control, often at the expense of open communication and accessibility.

Conformity Pressure emerges as a formidable force in social dynamics, compelling individuals to align their beliefs and actions with those of the majority. Bonhoeffer emphasizes the moral imperative to resist conformity that perpetuates injustice, championing integrity and personal conscience. The Dunning-Kruger effect may manifest in a tendency to conform, as individuals often perceive themselves as unqualified to challenge prevailing collective beliefs. Pluralistic ignorance further complicates matters, leading individuals to erroneously assume that dissenting opinions are scarce, thus resulting in collective inertia. Asch's experiments vividly demonstrate how individuals frequently suppress their true opinions to conform to perceived social norms. Furthermore, the landmark studies conducted at Yale and Harvard, particularly Milgram's obedience experiments, reveal the alarming extent to which individuals may follow authority figures, even to the detriment of ethical considerations. Narcissistic traits can exacerbate this conformity pressure, as those with inflated self-images often demand adherence to their views to reinforce their status. Among the Big Five personality traits, elevated levels of neuroticism can incline individuals toward conformity driven by social anxiety, inciting fear of rejection. Conversely, low openness fosters rigidity, inhibiting engagement with diverse viewpoints and ethical considerations.

Biblical Reflection : In contemplating these dynamics, biblical teachings underscore the values of integrity and compassion. Proverbs 12:15 poignantly illustrates the folly of the self-assured: "The way of fools seems right to them, but the wise man listens to advice." This conveys the significance of humility and the recognition of one's limitations, resonating with the Dunning-Kruger effect's implications.

The interplay of impostor syndrome, gatekeeping behavior, and conformity pressure elucidates the complexities of human behavior within contexts of authority. By scrutinizing these dynamics through the ethical lens provided by Bonhoeffer, alongside psychological theories such as the Dunning-Kruger effect and pluralistic ignorance, and the Big Five personality traits, we gain a more nuanced understanding of how these elements shape interpersonal relationships and organizational behavior. Recognizing and addressing these influences is imperative for fostering ethical leadership and cultivating a culture of openness and inclusivity. By nurturing a willingness to challenge conformity and promote ethical practices, individuals can contribute to the establishment of more just and equitable environments.

In the intricate tapestry of modern society, the nexus between leadership behavior, authority, and ethical governance has assumed paramount importance. The phenomenon of gatekeeping behavior, where individuals in positions of power circumscribe access to information and opportunities, presents significant dangers that reverberate across diverse global contexts. Gatekeeping can be defined as a negative evolution of cultural stupidity, characterized by collective ignorance and a refusal to acknowledge diverse perspectives. This behavior often stems from the Dunning-Kruger effect, wherein individuals with limited knowledge overestimate their competence, leading to misguided decisions. It is further exacerbated by a culture of narcissism, where leaders prioritize self-interest over collective welfare, and pluralistic ignorance, wherein individuals mistakenly believe that their views are not shared by others, inhibiting honest discourse. These dynamics, intertwined with the Big Five personality traits, particularly low openness and high neuroticism, result in a misguided approach to governance that stifles innovation and inclusivity.

This unsettling trend manifests in the actions of leaders ranging from Vladimir Putin's unwarranted aggression towards Ukraine to Donald Trump's contentious policies regarding tariffs and immigration. Furthermore, societal attitudes towards hate speech legislation and organ donation practices within various jurisdictions, such as Ireland, elucidate the far-reaching ramifications of gatekeeping behavior.

Gatekeeping behavior frequently engenders conflict by fostering division, exclusion, and the dissemination of misinformation. In the context of Vladimir Putin’s invasion of Ukraine, the Kremlin has adeptly employed the strategic distortion of information, manipulating narratives and constraining access to independent media. This form of gatekeeping not only fuels nationalist fervor but also suppresses dissent, perpetuating a cycle of aggression that undermines diplomatic resolutions and precipitates human suffering.

Similarly, Israel's policies towards the Palestinians serve as a poignant illustration of the perils associated with the restriction of opportunities and access. By maintaining dominion over territories and resources while simultaneously impeding Palestinian self-governance, Israel sustains a cycle of inequity and resentment. The gatekeeping behaviors evident in this context create formidable barriers to dialogue and understanding, further entrenching conflict and violence.

In the United States, the Trump administration epitomized gatekeeping behavior through its significant immigration policies. The enactment of tariffs and the invocation of the “America First” doctrine not only restricted the flow of goods and individuals but also cultivated an atmosphere replete with division and animosity. This governance model, characterized by exclusionary practices, marginalized communities and exacerbated societal tensions. The projection of a dichotomous "us versus them" mentality has dire implications for civil discourse and social cohesion within the United States.

Moreover, societies grappling with contentious issues such as hate speech laws find that the gatekeeping of discourse can yield deleterious effects. While the intentions underpinning such laws may seek to enhance safety, they are often susceptible to manipulation, suppressing legitimate dissent and diverse viewpoints. This engenders an atmosphere of fear, causing individuals to refrain from engaging in meaningful dialogue, thereby stalling societal progress.

In Ireland, the issue of organ donation laws highlights a disconcerting aspect of gatekeeping behavior. The reliance on the medieval principle of "qui tacit consentire" undermines Pádraig Pearse's vision of the "august destiny of man," as articulated in Article 40.1 of Bunreacht na hÉireann and Article 1 of the EU Charter. This antiquated model of consent compromises the dignity of individuals and the rights of those in dire need of medical intervention.

Moreover, the implementation of non-constitutional laws raises profound concerns regarding governance and individual rights. Historical precedents, such as the Nazis’ "Kopfumfang" methods, measures involving invasive and arbitrary practices to maintain control, serve as a stark reminder of the dangers of unchecked authority. The experiences of the German Democratic Republic, where government rhetoric famously included the claim, "Wir haben nicht die Absicht, eine Mauer zu errichten," reflect the deceit that can accompany state-sponsored oppression. Such sentiments resonate within the context of Northern Ireland, following Thatcher’s assertion that "crime, is crime, is crime," which ostensibly overlooked the complexities of socio-political struggles in favor of draconian measures.

O'Callaghan, McNeill, and McEntee, political figures in the Irish context, appear to share a disconcerting consensus on these matters, often seen agreeing and exchanging smiles, which may signify a troubling alignment with exclusionary policies rather than fostering dialogue and understanding. When authority figures assert influence over public health policies through gatekeeping, they contravene ethical standards while simultaneously reinforcing systemic inequities. Consequently, this can engender unnecessary suffering and loss of life, particularly for those who confront barriers in accessing equitable organ donation processes.

The Dunning-Kruger effect, a cognitive bias in which individuals with limited knowledge overestimate their competence, exemplifies a critical psychological phenomenon that exacerbates the dangers of gatekeeping behavior. Leaders may make sweeping decisions with unwarranted confidence, often without a comprehensive understanding of their far-reaching implications, resulting in flawed policies and ineffective governance. This tendency is particularly evident in the realms of military investment and security strategy.

Under the stewardship of von der Leyen, the EU's advocacy for substantial military investments in response to perceived external threats may reflect an overconfidence in the efficacy of a predominantly militaristic approach. As resources are allocated toward armaments at a time when social unrest and economic challenges proliferate within EU states, one must question the prudence and prescience of such leadership, potentially jeopardizing the very fabric of societal stability.

A pivotal component in confronting the dangers posed by gatekeeping behavior is the need for accountability within the judiciary. The prevailing notion that judges are invariably infallible, expressed through the adage, “I am a judge; I am always right”, undermines the fundamental premise that judicial decisions should be rooted in empirical facts and the public good. The political influences surrounding judicial appointments can impede impartiality, thereby reinforcing extant power structures that contribute to gatekeeping phenomena.

Moreover, the educational system is instrumental in cultivating future leaders. By fostering critical thinking and underscoring the importance of ethical decision-making, education can counteract the Dunning-Kruger effect and instill in leaders an appreciation for inclusivity and accountability. Establishing a culture of constructive dialogue, as opposed to one dominated by gatekeeping behaviors, is paramount for nurturing ethical leadership.

The negative activism associated with leaders who steadfastly refuse to acknowledge their limitations resonates with the ethical admonitions of Dietrich Bonhoeffer, underscoring the profound moral obligations leaders bear in their decision-making processes. In the present context, those in positions of authority must acknowledge the interconnectedness of social quandaries, security challenges, and the propensity for exacerbating tensions through exclusionary practices.

The perils posed by leaders who neglect these responsibilities are significant. When gatekeeping behaviors are intertwined with overconfidence and neglect, societies risk descending into deeper crises, as evidenced by the multifaceted challenges currently confronting the EU.

The dangers of gatekeeping behavior in contemporary society, evident in both global conflicts and domestic policies, illuminate the profound implications for social cohesion, equity, and ethical governance. Leaders who engage in such behaviors not only exacerbate divisions but also impede the processes of democracy and justice. The interplay of gatekeeping behavior, compounded by the Dunning-Kruger effect and negative activism, presents an urgent challenge within modern governance.

As the EU strategically navigates its defense initiatives, particularly in light of rising living costs and social discontent, it is imperative to prioritize transparency, inclusivity, and accountability in leadership. By recognizing and addressing the multifaceted factors that contribute to these dynamics, society can aspire toward the establishment of more inclusive and equitable systems, ultimately fostering a more just and cohesive world.

Moreover, as the Latin adage "pro patria mori" reminds us the notion of dying for one’s country one must heed the poignant warnings of World War I poets such as Wilfred Owen, who eloquently captured the gruesome realities of war and the tragic consequences of blind patriotism. Owen’s evocative verses remind us that the valorized sacrifice must not be obscured by misguided ideologies or the hubris of leadership, lest we repeat the tragic mistakes of history.

Bent double, like old beggars under sacks,
Knock-kneed, coughing like hags, we cursed through sludge,
Till on the haunting flares we turned our backs,
And towards our distant rest began to trudge.
Men marched asleep. Many had lost their boots,
But limped on, blood-shod. All went lame; all blind;
Drunk with fatigue; deaf even to the hoots
Of gas-shells dropping softly behind.

Gas! GAS! Quick, boys!—An ecstasy of fumbling
Fitting the clumsy helmets just in time,
But someone still was yelling out and stumbling
And flound’ring like a man in fire or lime.—
Dim through the misty panes and thick green light,
As under a green sea, I saw him drowning.

In all my dreams before my helpless sight,
He plunges at me, guttering, choking, drowning.

If in some smothering dreams, you too could pace
Behind the wagon that we flung him in,
And watch the white eyes writhing in his face,
His hanging face, like a devil’s sick of sin;
If you could hear, at every jolt, the blood
Come gargling from the froth-corrupted lungs,
Obscene as cancer, bitter as the cud
Of vile, incurable sores on innocent tongues,—
My friend, you would not tell with such high zest
To children ardent for some desperate glory,
The old Lie: Dulce et decorum est
Pro patria mori.

Deemed consent and appropriate consent – general provisions

10. (1) For the purposes of this Part, where deemed consent applies in respect of a deceased adult in accordance with section 18 and there is no objection to transplantation activities by the designated family member—

(a) the designated family member shall confirm in writing, in the presence of a witness who shall attest the designated family member's confirmation, that he or she has no objection to such transplantation activities, or

(b) in a case where the family member concerned cannot provide confirmation in writing for any reason, that confirmation may be given orally by the person in the presence of two witnesses each of whom shall attest that the person has no objection.

(2) (a) For the purposes of this Part, "appropriate consent" means consent provided without duress or coercion—

(i) in relation to a deceased adult who is not registered on the Register and in respect of whom deemed consent does not apply, by the designated family member in accordance with section 19,

(ii) in relation to a deceased child, by a parent or guardian in accordance with section 21,

(iii) in relation to the donation of an organ by a living adult donor or a non-directed altruistic donor, by the donor and, in the case of a non-directed altruistic donor, with the approval of the Panel in accordance with section 29,

(iv) in relation to the donation of tissues and cells by a living adult donor, by the donor,

(v) in relation to the donation of regenerative tissues and cells by a living child, by a parent or guardian, with the approval of a Panel in accordance with section 31,

(vi) in relation to the donation of regenerative tissues and cells by a living adult who lacks capacity, by the specified person concerned in accordance with section 25, with the approval of the Panel in accordance with section 30,

(vii) in relation to a case to which section 25(2) applies, by the specified person concerned, or (viii) in relation to a case to which section 26(2) applies, by a parent or guardian of the child.

(b) For the purposes of this Part—

(i) appropriate consent shall be in writing and shall be signed by the person giving the consent in the presence of a witness who shall attest the person's signature, or

(ii) in a case where the person cannot provide appropriate consent in writing that consent may be given orally by the person in the presence of two witnesses each of whom shall attest that the person gave consent.

(3) A copy of a confirmation referred to in subsection (1) or a copy of an appropriate consent referred to in subparagraphs (i) to (viii) of subsection (2)(a) shall be—

(a) retained with the medical records of the donor for a period of 30 years, and

(b) offered to the person providing confirmation or consent and, on his or her request, shall be given to that person.

(4) Prior to any importation of an organ into the State for the purpose of transplantation activities, a transplantation centre shall satisfy itself that—

(a) the consent required for such transplantation activities has been obtained by the appropriate person in the country of origin where procurement of the organ took place, and

(b) the procurement of the organ meets the legal requirements of the country of origin in relation to the transplantation activities concerned.

(5) Prior to any importation of any tissues and cells into the State for the purpose of transplantation activities, a tissue establishment or an importing tissue establishment shall satisfy itself that—

(a) the consent required for such transplantation activities has been obtained by the appropriate person in the country of origin where procurement of the tissues and cells took place, and

(b) the procurement of the tissues and cells meets the legal requirements of the country of origin in relation to the transplantation activities concerned.

(6) A person who contravenes—

(a) subsection (3),

(b) subsection (4), or

(c) subsection (5),

shall be guilty of an offence.

(7) In this section, “country of origin” means the country from which the organ or tissues and cells, as the case may be, was or were procured before being imported into the State.

Transplantation activities

11. (1) A person shall not carry out a transplantation activity unless he or she is satisfied—

(a) where deemed consent applies and there is no objection to transplantation activities by the designated family member, that the family member has provided

GERICHTSHOF DER EUROPÄISCHEN UNION

gemäß Artikel 17 des Vertrags über die Europäische Union und Artikel 245 des Vertrags über die Arbeitsweise der Europäischen Union:

- Vom Europäischen Rat nach dem Zustimmungsvotum des Europäischen Parlaments zum Mitglied der Europäischen Kommission ernannt.

verpflichte ich mich feierlich,

- bei der Erfüllung aller meiner Pflichten die Verträge und die Charta der Grundrechte der Europäischen Union zu achten;
- meine Tätigkeit in voller Unabhängigkeit im allgemeinen Interesse der Union auszuüben;
- bei der Erfüllung meiner Aufgaben Weisungen von einer Regierung, einem Organ, einer Einrichtung oder jeder anderen Stelle weder einzuholen noch entgegenzunehmen;
- mich jeder Handlung zu enthalten, die mit meinem Amt oder der Erfüllung meiner Aufgaben unvereinbar ist.

Ich nehme zur Kenntnis, dass sich jeder Mitgliedstaat verpflichtet, diesen Grundsatz zu achten und nicht zu versuchen, die Mitglieder der Kommission bei der Erfüllung ihrer Aufgaben zu beeinflussen.

Ich verpflichte mich außerdem, während der Ausübung und nach Ablauf meiner Amtstätigkeit die sich aus meinem Amt ergebenden Pflichten zu erfüllen, insbesondere die Pflicht, bei der Annahme gewisser Tätigkeiten oder Vorteile nach Ablauf dieser Tätigkeit ehrenhaft und zurückhaltend zu sein.

Ursula v. der Leyen

EU-Vertrag

Titel I - Gemeinsame Bestimmungen (Art. 1 - 8)

Art. 3
(ex-Artikel 2 EUV)

(1) Ziel der Union ist es, den Frieden, ihre Werte und das Wohlergehen ihrer Völker zu fördern.

(2) Die Union bietet ihren Bürgerinnen und Bürgern einen Raum der Freiheit, der Sicherheit und des Rechts ohne Binnengrenzen, in dem - in Verbindung mit geeigneten Maßnahmen in Bezug auf die Kontrollen an den Außengrenzen, das Asyl, die Einwanderung sowie die Verhütung und Bekämpfung der Kriminalität - der freie Personenverkehr gewährleistet ist.

(3) Die Union errichtet einen Binnenmarkt. Sie wirkt auf die nachhaltige Entwicklung Europas auf der Grundlage eines ausgewogenen Wirtschaftswachstums und von Preisstabilität, eine in hohem Maße wettbewerbsfähige soziale Marktwirtschaft, die auf Vollbeschäftigung und sozialen Fortschritt abzielt, sowie ein hohes Maß an Umweltschutz und Verbesserung der Umweltqualität hin. Sie fördert den wissenschaftlichen und technischen Fortschritt.

Sie bekämpft soziale Ausgrenzung und Diskriminierungen und fördert soziale Gerechtigkeit und sozialen Schutz, die Gleichstellung von Frauen und Männern, die Solidarität zwischen den Generationen und den Schutz der Rechte des Kindes.

Sie fördert den wirtschaftlichen, sozialen und territorialen Zusammenhalt und die Solidarität zwischen den Mitgliedstaaten.

Sie wahrt den Reichtum ihrer kulturellen und sprachlichen Vielfalt und sorgt für den Schutz und die Entwicklung des kulturellen Erbes Europas.

(4) Die Union errichtet eine Wirtschafts- und Währungsunion, deren Währung der Euro ist.

(5) In ihren Beziehungen zur übrigen Welt schützt und fördert die Union ihre Werte und Interessen und trägt zum Schutz ihrer Bürgerinnen und Bürger bei. Sie leistet einen Beitrag zu Frieden, Sicherheit, globaler nachhaltiger Entwicklung, Solidarität und gegenseitiger Achtung unter den Völkern, zu freiem und gerechtem Handel, zur Beseitigung der Armut und zum Schutz der Menschenrechte, insbesondere der Rechte des Kindes, sowie zur strikten Einhaltung und Weiterentwicklung des Völkerrechts, insbesondere zur Wahrung der Grundsätze der Charta der Vereinten Nationen.

(6) Die Union verfolgt ihre Ziele mit geeigneten Mitteln entsprechend den Zuständigkeiten, die ihr in den Verträgen übertragen sind.

Derek Ó Barrard

Dearest Yevette,

the legitimacy of political authority within democratic republics hinges not solely on the electoral mechanisms that confer such power, but equally upon the ethical responsibilities that accompany these authoritative positions. The historical hostilities experienced throughout the 20th century highlight the dire consequences that can arise when elected officials prioritize personal gratification over the welfare of their constituents. It is imperative to recognize that individuals exhibiting negative Bonhoeffer-like activism and traits such as narcissism may seek political power for self-serving reasons, thereby jeopardizing the very essence of democratic governance.

In this context, Dietrich Bonhoeffer, as a "Widerstandskämpfer der 20. Juli Attentat," serves as a prominent example of moral courage and ethical responsibility. His determination to resist the Nazi regime and fight for the common good illustrates the essential need for authentic ethical leadership in the contemporary political landscape.

In light of these complex dynamics, there is a pressing need for the establishment of a robust legal framework that holds elected officials accountable for their actions. Such a framework should delineate clear standards of competence and ethical behavior, ensuring that those in positions of authority remain steadfast in their commitment to the principles of fiduciary duty and public trust. By instituting legal measures that explicitly account for the potential impact of personality traits on governance, we can foster an environment where ethical leadership is not merely desirable but required.

Furthermore, the concept of negative activism must be defined within a stringent legal context to provide a clear basis for accountability. Historical precedents demonstrate that when leaders exploit their authority, legal mechanisms must be in place to address such conduct effectively. In pursuing this objective, we can erect safeguards against the erosion of democratic values and ensure that elected officials remain committed to serving the public good.

As we critically assess the implications of personality traits like narcissism, it becomes abundantly clear that integrating psychological evaluations or guidelines into the candidacy process is essential. This approach will help mitigate the risks associated with individuals who may overestimate their competence, leading to potentially catastrophic policy decisions.

Ultimately, it is imperative to reinforce legal standards for ethical governance with undeniable clarity and rigor. Legislative measures that clarify misconduct linked to negative activism will empower citizens to hold their leaders accountable meaningfully. Establishing robust mechanisms for public oversight can further ensure transparency and encourage ethical behavior in the political sphere.

By creating a comprehensive legal framework that meticulously addresses these pressing concerns, we can aspire to forge a democratic system predicated upon moral fortitude, unwavering accountability, and the genuine welfare of all citizens. Such a commitment stands to enhance the pursuit of a more just and equitable society, thereby reinforcing the foundational principles that underpin our democratic ideals.

Dear Dr Hanley

I am writing again on behalf of our client Derek O'Baroid, please see attached authority to act and copy of my letter of 30/09/2024.

Your secretary called me the day the letter was received by yourselves, and I explained we are looking for a response in writing please.

As previously mentioned,

We are assisting Derek to apply for both Disability Allowance and the medical card.

He dropped both forms to your practice for completion some months back and has not heard back as yet. As I am sure you understand this is quite worrying for him, especially to be without a medical card. We would greatly appreciate if you could complete the forms and return to him ASAP, you will see his address on the ATA.

With kindest regards

Teideal: Iarratas Formúil ar Thaighde ar Chionta ar Chearta Duine, Cuireadh Gan Ruairí, agus Teipeanna Cóiríochta Córasacha

A chara,

Táim i gceannas ar an litir seo a chur chugat le hiarratas foirmiúil ar thaighde ó údarás na hEorpa i leith sárú tromchúiseach ar mo chearta duine, a chuimsíonn mí-giúmar, easpa cúraim, agus cuireadh gan ruairí faoi Alt 12 d'Acht na Sláinte Menthala 2005. Tá an chorás seo ag dul i dtreo a thaispeáint na teipeanna córasacha atá le feiceáil ar gach leibhéal dár gcomhréiteach, lena n-áirítear Garda Síochána na hÉireann, an tOifigeach Aturnae, an Ard-Chúirt, agus an Chúirt Uachtarach.

Réamhrá Bunreacht na hÉireann:

Déantar leagan amach sa réamhrá de Bunreacht na hÉireann na tiomantais atá aige chun leasa na gnáthshaoránach a chur chun cinn agus cearta sibhialta agus bunúsacha a chinntiú. Níl na prionsabail seo ach oiread le harda uachtar, ach tá siad mar aidhm atá riachtanach chun pobal cóir a chothú. Mar sin féin, taispeánann an staid na n-eispéireas atá mé ag tabhairt aghaidh orthu go dtí seo go bhfuil sárú na luachanna bunúsacha seo ag tarlú go trom, ag éileamh freagra agus athchóiriú atá práinneach.

Cúlra an Cháis:

Ar 18/03/25, cuireadh i gcion orm go míchuí ag Garda Síochána na hÉireann faoi na forálacha d’Acht na Sláinte Menthala. Cé go raibh cearta á gcumarsáid ag na hearraí, bhí easpa suntasach ar rannpháirtíocht le brath ann chun a chinntiú go dtuiginn mé iad nó chun mo thuilleadh rochtana a áireamh ar thacaíocht dhlíthiúil. Is trína theip a chur ar mo huachtar, nach ndeimhneodh gairm mo shaoil, go bhfuil sárú suntasach déanta ar chaighdeáin dhlí náisiúnta agus idirnáisiúnta.

I mo chás croí, tá sé mar aidhm agam mo cheart go habeas corpus a ghríosadh, cosaint atá bunúsach i gcoinne coimeád gan mhoiliú, atá chomh sean le prionsabal an dlí féin. Tragófar, áfach, tá mo iarratais ar mandamus faoi Ordúil 89 de Riail na nUachtar gníomhachisiúnta go dearfach roinnte. Cuireadh i gcion orm gan freagracht ag an gCúirt Uachtarach na hÉireann, rud a léiríonn na teipeanna córasacha coiscthe a imreann i ngach céim dá gcomhréireacht.

Mí-giúmar, Easpa Cúraim, agus Teipeanna Córasacha Cóirithe:

Taispeánann na gníomhartha atá tugtha dom mí-giúmar achtaí léirithe i bpáirtnáireacht poiblí, áit a léiríonn Garda Síochána neamhrialtaí móra tríd na prionsabail a bhainimid le cúram cuí a chaomhnú. Taispeánann an easpa aird ar mo chearta cobhsaíocht ban ag Murphy go draíochta. Ar ndóigh, forbhronnann laige na gníomhaíochta sa chúirt—gníomhaíochtaí an tOifigeach Aturnae, an Ard-Chúirt, agus an Chúirt Uachtarach—deacrachtaí cóirithe a slánaithe.

Tugann an comhoibriú seo le frithgheall mé mo chuimhne a ght lasmuigh. “Do cheartú ar ghabhála mar a thabharfá do dhaoine é ar feadh a chéile,” tá an ms atá ag muintir á méar a chur ar an eolas dom maidir le cás i mbealach prionsabail.

Comhthéacs Comhcheanglaite agus Conradh:

Déantar comhcheangal a fhorbairt ag an Conradh Lisabóin atá á spriocghrúpaítear ag laige le cearta bunúsacha, go háirithe na heagraíochtaí idirnáisiúnta. Tá sé mar gheall air seo go bhfuil na prionsabail a shocraíonn slándáil, an ceart a bheith beo, agus an ceart a bheith i láthair le poblacht na Machán le chéile. Mar sin, tá sé geallta do na húdaráis go gcoimeádfar an coimeád seo, mar go ghoididh easpa náidleacht an eolaire nálais na daoine.

Iarratas ar Ghníomh Taighde.

Ar an gcreat a chúisítear ag na teipeanna ar fáil anseo, mar gheall ar na sárú tromchlúise atá déanta ar mo cheart go habeas corpus , táim ag duilleog laige ar údarás na hEorpa chun gníomh ceart a chruthú le taighde a dhéanamh ar na cúinsí a thacaigh le mo chiontuargais agus na mí-giúirta. Is éard atá i gceist anseo is ní amháin le déileáil leis na mí-giúiradh ar thiomóireacht ar cuireadh i gcion orm ach chun athneartú a dhéanamh ar na prionsabail cómhréireachta agus na luachanna daonna atá lonnaithe a bhaint amach.

Go raibh maith agat as do aire a thabhairt don tsásc éigeandála seo. Táim ag fanacht le haon tráthchuid faoi do céimeanna sa taighde dom maidir le teipeanna a fuarthas ar na hathníochtaí bunúsacha atá ag cur béime ar mo chearta.

BRD Court Decisions on Humanitarian Failures in DDR

1. General Context:

   - The reunification of Germany brought to light the numerous humanitarian failures associated with the DDR (German Democratic Republic), leading to various judicial assessments and claims about human rights violations during that era.

   - German courts, including the Federal Constitutional Court (BVerfG), have addressed claims related to state-sponsored oppression, arbitrary detention, and inhumane treatment of prisoners within the DDR's penal system.

2. Key Decisions:

   - The Federal Court of Justice (BGH) dealt with cases involving former political prisoners who sought redress for damages inflicted during their detention in the DDR. These decisions acknowledged the lack of due process and the existence of a system designed to suppress dissent through arbitrary arrest and imprisonment.

   - Additionally, the Federal Constitutional Court has ruled on the fundamental rights of individuals subjected to state repression, reinforcing the necessity for democratic governance and human rights protections. These rulings serve as reminders of the historical context in which rights were disregarded under authoritarian rule.

   ECHR Decisions Against the UK Regarding H-Blocks Mistreatment

   1. McKerr v. United Kingdom (2001) :

      - The ECHR concluded that the UK failed to conduct an effective investigation into the killings of a prisoner in Northern Ireland, thereby violating Article 2 (right to life) and Article 3 (prohibition of inhuman or degrading treatment).

      - This ruling emphasized the necessity for an effective legal framework to address human rights violations and highlighted the failures of the UK government in safeguarding the lives and dignity of inmates in its custody.

   2. Keenan v. United Kingdom (2001) :

   3.

      - In this case, the ECHR found that the conditions of detention in the H-Blocks constituted inhuman and degrading treatment, violating Article 3. The court stressed that the state has a positive obligation to ensure the well-being of all prisoners, particularly those with mental health issues.

      - The findings further underscored the systemic issues related to the treatment of political prisoners and the inadequate health care provisions in Northern Ireland's prison system.

      3. Brady v. United Kingdom (2006) : - The ECHR ruled that the treatment of prisoners isolated from others amounted to a breach of Article 3. The decision underscored the psychological toll of such treatment and the failure to provide adequate care, revealing deep-seated issues within the detention practices in the H-Blocks.

Bíodh misneach doibh.

When the foeman snatched from thee each God-given right,
And entombed thee in darkness of Slavery's night,
And on thy fair bosom pressed Tyranny's heel.
While about thee lay shivered thy once trusty steel ;
When he heaped outrage on thee, scorn, insult, and wrong,
Till thy form lay lifeless, and mute was thy tongue
Tis fading, Oh ! 'tis fading ! like leaves upon the trees !
In murmuring tone 'tis dieing, like the wail upon the breeze ;
'Tis swiftly disappearing, as footprints on the shore
Where the Barrow, and the Erne, and Lough Swilly's waters roar
Since our Celtic sires sung war-songs round the sacred fires of Baal ;
The tongues that saw its infancy are ranked among the dead.
And from their graves have risen those now spoken in their stead.
The glories of fair Ériu with her liberty have now gone
Are Irishmen still Irish in nothing other than in name?
Dare Saxon chain our rights and tongues alike doth hold in thrall,
Save where amid the Connaught fields and hills of Donegal —
And by the shores of Munster, like the broad Atlantic blast,
The olden language lingers yet, and binds us to the Past.
Thro' cold neglect 'tis dying now; a stranger on our shore!
No Tara's hall re-echoes to its music as of yore —
No Lawrence fires the Celtic clans round leagured Athaclee —
No Shannon wafts from Limerick's towers their war-songs to the sea.

Oh ! Irishmen, and Irishwomen! stand for the dear old tongue
Which as ivy to a ruin, to your native land has clung !
Oh ! snatch this relic from the wreck ! the only and the last,
And cherish in your heart of hearts the language of the Past !
Oh, Ériu, vain your efforts — your prayers for Freedom's crown,
Whilst offered in the language of the foe that clove it down ;
Be sure that tyrants never, with an art from darkness sprung,
make the conquered nation slaves alike in Anam and in tongue

Daly & Colbert fought to free Éire
A fundamental Right for me and you
The might of Right, not Right of Might
To protect even the devil as if it were you
If the Law does not protect all than who, You!

Dear Mr O'Barróid,

The role of the Ombudsman is to investigate complaints from members of the public who believe that they have been unfairly treated by certain public service providers. The public service providers whose actions may be investigated by the Ombudsman include Government Departments, Local Authorities, the Health Service Executive (HSE) (and public hospitals and health agencies acting on behalf of the HSE), publicly funded third-level education bodies and private nursing homes.

I acknowledge receipt of your email of 12 March 2025 which was forwarded to our Office. While the aforementioned email was only forwarded to our Office the substantive issue of your complaint falls outside of the remit of the Office of the Ombudsman as the matter of whether a person requires admittance to a facility is a matter of Clinical Judgement. I must advise you that the Ombudsman cannot, by law, investigate actions taken by staff on behalf of the HSE, which, in the opinion of the Ombudsman, relate solely to the exercise of clinical judgement in the diagnosis of illness or the care or treatment of a patient.

I note from your email of 09 April 2025 that part of your complaint is regarding Freedom of Information request(s). The office of the Ombudsman does not deal with complaints regarding Freedom of Information requests. The body that deals with complaints about Freedom of Information requests is the Office of the Information Commissioner. Details for contacting them are as follows:

Office of the Information Commissioner (OIC)
Address: 6 Earlsfort Terrace,
Dublin 2,
D02 W773
Email: info@oic.ie
Phone: +353 1 639 5689

Please note that under the second schedule of the Ombudsman Act, 1980, (as amended), the Ombudsman is precluded from examining complaints which relate to An Garda Síochána. Fiosrú, the Office of the Police Ombudsman may be able to assist you. Contact details are as follows;

Fiosrú, the Office of the Police Ombudsman
Address: 150 Upper Abbey Street,

Garda Síochána Ombudsman Commission (GSOC) has been reformed under the Policing, Security and Community Safety Act, 2024. GSOC is now known as Fiosrú, the Office of the Police Ombudsman.

This change took place on commencement of the Policing, Security and Community Safety Act, 2024 on 2nd April 2025.

Fiosrú is now the independent statutory body dealing with complaints about Gardaí.

Re: Request for more information

Dear Mr Bárwald,

Thank you for contacting Fiosrú, the Office of the Police Ombudsman. We have received your complaint form dated 20 April 2025.

Your reference number is 990266-04-25. Please quote this reference number when contacting us.

Fiosrú was set up under the Policing, Security and Community Safety Act 2024 to deal with complaints about the behaviour of members of An Garda Síochána.

We have received the information you provided, however, it is not clear to us if you wish to make a complaint to Fiosrú about the behaviour of a member of An Garda Síochána.

If you want your complaint form to be considered as a complaint against a member of An Garda Síochána, please send us the following information:

- Date(s), time(s) and location(s) of the incident(s) you are complaining about.
- Details on who you are complaining about (or information to help us identify the Garda/Gardaí).
- A description of the garda behaviour you are complaining about.

A complaint should be made within 12 months from when the garda behaviour that you are complaining about happened. Fiosrú can extend this time limit if it considers there is good reason to do this.

Please reply before 06/05/2025, giving as much detail as possible.

You can reply in writing either:

- by post, to Fiosrú, Office of the Police Ombudsman, 150 Upper Abbey Street, Dublin 1, D01 FT73 or
- by email to complaints@fiosru.ie

If you have any questions, please call us on 0818 600 800, Monday to Friday from 10am to 1pm.

Yours sincerely,

L. Nulty on behalf of K. Fegan

Betr: Gearán chuig Cúirt na hEorpa um
Chearta an Duine

A chairde go léir,

Réamhrá agus Ábhar an Ghearáin.

Táim ag cur an ghearáin seo faoi bhráid Cúirt na hEorpa um Chearta an Duine de réir Airt 34 den Choinbhinsiún Eorpach um Cheata an Duine. Is íospartach sárú trom córasach ar chearta daonna mé ag gníomhartha orgánach stáit i bPoblacht na hÉireann agus i bPoblacht Chónaidhme na Gearmáine. Tá an dá stát tar éis teip iomlán a dhéanamh ar mo chearta bunúsacha a chosaint. Bhí mé faoi réir foréigean fisiciúil agus síceolaíoch, mí-úsáid ag na húdaráis agus gníomhartha mídhleathacha ar bhealach córasach. Tá an méid déanta níos measa ná an méid a tharla le linn réimeas na Naitsithe sa Naitsithe sa Ghearmáin, sa Ghearmáin Thoir nó i gcamhlíntí Thuaisceart Éireann, tasc gur ghlac gníomhaireachtaí stáit páirt dhíreach agus gníomhaireachtaí stáit páirt dhíreach agus ghníomhach i sárú cearta bunúsacha.

Cearta Sáraithe agus Airteagail don Choinbhinsiún Eorpach um Chearta an Duine:

1. Airt 3; Cosc ar chéasadh agus ar chóireáil mhaslach nó mhíchlaonna i mbeit stát, rinne fórsaí póilíneachta agus oibrithe orgánach stáit drochíde orm. Tá gníomhaíochtaí na bpóilíní in Éirinn [An Garda Síochána] agus sa Ghearmáin maslach agus míchlaonna, lena n-áirítear foréigean fisiciúil, imeaglú síceolaíoch agus mí-úsáid chumhachta ar bhealach córasach.

2: Airt. 5; Ceart ar Shaoirse agus ar shlándáil Sáraíodh mo shaoirse agus mo shlándáil ag údaráis na Gearmáine agus na hÉireann. Cuireadh moill gan chúis orm, cuireadh i bpríosún mé ar bhealach mí-dhleathach, agus cuireadh i gcúinsí éadócaireacha agus foirigneacha i mo choinne. Bhí bagairt dhíreach ar mo bheatha agus ar mo shláinte fisiciúil

3. Airt 6; Ceart ar Chothroime sa phróiseas Cúirte. Níor cuireadh na riachtanais ar fáil do phróiseas cothrom sa bhreithiúnas sa dá thír. Bhí páirtíocht ag na cúirteanna, agus chuir na húdaráis mo chosaint isteach trí rochtain ar cháipéisí tábhachta a dhiúltú nó moill a chur ar na próiseas mar an an-ghnóthach. Tá sé seo ina shárú ollmhór ní hamháin ar Airt. 6 ach ar na gealltanais a bhaineann leis an tsaoirse a thug Éire agus an Ghearmáin.

4. Airt 13; Ceart ar Ghearán Éifeachtach

Ní raibh mé in ann in aon cheann de na háiteanna gearáin éifeachtacha i gcoinne mí-úsáide cumhachta agus foréigin a dhéanamh. Shéanadh nó neamhaird mo ghearáin agus tharla níos mó díoltas. Dhiúltaigh údaráis na Gearmáine agus hÉireann na cáipéisí riachtanacha a scaoileadh nó rinne siad an próiseas níos deacra.

Tagairt do Dhlí an AE agus Ghealltanais Náisiúnta: Chomh maith le sárú an Chonbhinsiúin Eorpaigh um Chearta an Duine, sáraíodh na bunphrionsabail seo leanas:

- Ceart um Chearta Bunúsacha an AE:

Sáraíodh Airt 4 (Cosc ar Chéasadh), Airt 47 (Ceart ar chosaint dhlíthiúil) agus Airt. 51 (Ceangaltas cearta bunúsacha ar an Stát). Bhí Éire agus an Ghearmáin araon i bhfad uaidh chun oibleagáidí na mbeartas rí-thábhachtach a chomhlíonadh chun cearta daoine a chosaint

Bunreacht na hÉireann agus Bunreacht na Gearmáine.

Moltar ag an dá Bhunreacht na Cearta daoine a chosaint. Mar sin féin, léirigh údaráis na Gearmáine agus na hÉireann drach-chumhacht agus bhris siad an dá dlí comeádach go córasach.

An Garda Síochana Act 2005, Art. 7.1.c.
Tá an t-alt seo tiomanta do chearta an duine a choisaint ag an nGarda Síochána. In ionad an méid sin a dhéanamh, sáraigh siad an ceart seo ar bhealach soiléir agus scaipthe bréagín. Ina theannta sin, bhí a n-iompar mar ghníomh cáinteach contre-Chearam.

Iarraidh ar an gCúirt Eorpach um Chearta an Duine
Iarraim ar Chúirt na hEorpa um Chearta an Duine na bearta seo a leanas a chur i bhfeidhm:

1. Aithint a dhéanamh go sáraíodh mo chearta lom. Choinbhinsiún Eorpach um Chearta an Duine ag Poblacht na hÉireann agus an Ghearmáin.
2. Ceangal ar na Stáit ar chinntiú nach dtarlóidh gníomhartha millteach dá leithéid in aghaidh mo chearta arís.
3. Tabhairt freagrachta dlí ar Chaltóirí aon oifigigh stáit.
4. Síniú ar rochtain oscailte ar chúrsaí lena iad mo chosant cheart a bhunú.

Údar ar Theitheadh ó Phríosún.

Le linn mo chuid ama faoi ghabháil in Éirinn, bhí mé mé ag fulaingt díombeacha, bagairt gan teorainn agus easnamh ceart dlíthe nó aon léargais ar mo ror-chúrsín. Bhí mo shábháilteacht phearsanta agus m'fholláine choip i mbaol mór, rud a rinne é dodhéanta dom fanacht sa phríosún. Bhí orm teitheadh chun mo shaol a chosaint i bhfianaise na gcúinsí.

Fianaise agus Doiciméadú.

Táim ag soláthar don Chúirt na doiciméid, na tuairiscí agus na teistimeireachta ábhartha go léir a thaispeánna na sáruithe i gcoinne mo chearta ag údarais i bPoblacht na hÉireann agus sa Ghearmáin. Cuimsíonn sé seo fianaise ar fhoréigean, mí-úsáid chumhachta, agus iochtain a dhiúltú ar chaispéisí tábhachtacha.

Conclúid.

Iarraim ar Chúirt na hEorpa na um Chearta an Duine mo ghearán a scrúdú go cúramach. Tá Poblacht na hÉireann agus Poblacht Chónaidhme na Gearmáine tar éis sárú tromchúiseach ar mo chearta a dhéanamh. Iarraim gníomh beacht[?] gníomh i gcoinne an dá stát agus bearta a chuntion go bhfaighim ceartas agus go gcosnaítear cearta daoine eile amach anseo.

RE: Correspondence to the Chief Justice

Dear. Mr. O'Barróid,

I refer to your correspondence date 8 May 2025, which was addressed to the Chief Justice.

As per the information notice published on the website of the Supreme Court (www.supremecourt.ie) the Chief Justice may direct an appropriate official to reply to correspondence on his behalf. He has asked me to do so, and to convey to you that no discourtesy is intended by this.

The Chief Justice has no function of dealing with complaints in relation to the matters complained of in your letter and there is no complaints procedure available through the Office of the Chief Justice. Similarly, the Chief Justice has no jurisdiction to deal with your complaint, or to take any action on foot of it.

Furthermore, as the Constitution requires that justice be administered in public, the Chief Justice does not enter into correspondence with persons in relation to court proceedings and deals only with cases which have been brought before the Supreme Court in accordance with the procedures set out in the law and the Rules of Court.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Mr. O'Barroid,

Re: Case Number 2025/103184

I refer to the letter you submitted on the 11th June to the Court Office requesting:

a) A personal conversation with a judge
b) Access to your files.

As I explained to you at the counter, members of the Judiciary cannot engage in personal conversations with court users. Any conversation must take place in open court during the proceedings of a specific case. Your case number 2025/103184 is now complete with a final order of No Order. If you have a complaint regarding alleged judicial misconduct, you can review the relevant information at https://judicialcouncil.ie/make-a-complaint/

With regards to access to your files, I am attaching copy orders which are a digital copy of your court file. Your only record that is not included is the Charge Sheet. You should already have a copy of this Charge Sheet from when you were originally charged by the Gardai. The details of the charge are also recorded in the Copy Orders. For reference, any general applications to the Court are heard on a Thursday and such applications should be submitted in writing to the Court Office at least two days in advance.

If you wish to communicate with the Limerick Court Office, our e-mail is limerickcourtoffice@courts.ie

You can also find information about the Courts Service at www.courts.ie

Sehr geehrte Frau Röhm,

Es wird erneuert um Akteneinsicht gebeten und hiermit wird mit Nachdruck gefördert. Aus dem Schriftverkehr ist es ersichtlich daß der person O'Borröid angeschrieben wird. Diese Person bin ich nicht. Es sollte eigentlich ersichtlich daß diese sowie söntige Verwaltungsakte nichtig sind.

Falls diese vermeintlichen Steuererstattung den Betrieb "Barrett" betrifft, teil ich Ihnen mit daß auf Grund der Verlustrücktragbescheide, sollte eine Steuererstattung in Höhe vom €100,000.- liegen.

Diese Betrag erhöht die geltend gemachten Verunehrungen um €180.000,- , jetz auf €280.000,-. Weitere Missstärken dürfen Sie aus dem Anlagen bei interesse entnehmen.

Sehr geehrte Frau RAin Kuttler,

Einen Rechtsgeschäft, das die Insolvenzgläubiger unmittelbar benachteiligt, steht eine andere Rechtshandlung des Schuldners gleich, durch die der Schuldner ein Recht verliert oder nicht mehr geltend machen kann oder durch die ein vermögensrechtlicher Anspruch gegen ihn oder durchsetzbar wird. Hello. Vgl. BGH IX ZR 177/08; 02/02/2011.

Ein Familienname darf nur geändert werden, wenn ein wichtiger Grund die Änderung rechtfertigt. Vgl § 3 NamÄndG zum Beschluss BVerwG B 30.22 vom 03.05.2023.
Es ist nicht, nichtmal im Ermessensspielraum einer Spruchkörper des Gerichts, hier Frau Richterin Michel, Namesänderungen durchzuführen. Am 30.06.2022 hat das Amtsgericht Gießen einen Verbraucherinsolvenzverfahren für einen Herren O'Barrōrd, Gießen eröffnet. Der bin Ich nicht atl Derek O'Barrōrd is ainm dom.

Es wird um widereinsetzung der Vohergerstand gebeten. Ich möchte Sie daher bitten das Gericht entsprechend an zu scheiben, da Ich ersichtlich kein Anspruch auf Gerichtlichesgehör habe.

Gerichtsverfahren stehen in besonderer Weise im Dienst der Rechtsicherheit. Das rechtsstaatliche Grundgebot materiale Gerechtigkeit zu verwirklichen, ist indessen nicht allein auf den Einzelfall bezogen, sondern auch auf den Wirkungszusammenhang der Rechtsordnung und ihrer Vollzugs insgesamt. Die Rechtssicherheit ist ein wesentliches Element der Rechtsstaatlichkeit und damit eines Konstitionsprinzips des Grundgesetzes: Art 20 Abs. 3, 28 Abs 1 GG. Die Ausgestaltung des Rechtswegs muß freilich dem Schutzzweck des Art 19 Abs. 4 Satz 1 GG genüge: Sie muß das Ziel dieser Gewährleistung – den wirkungsvolle Rechtschutz.

Am 23 Oktober 1957, haben Federer, Frieshahn, Fröhlich, Geiger, Henneka, Klaas, Leusser, Roediger, Rupp sowie Wolff trotz ihrer Beteiligung in der NSDAP, SA sowie des Polenfeldzuges, vielleicht gerade deswegen festgestellt, daß der Gleichheitsatz; Art 3 Abs. 1 GG auch den Gesetzgeber bindet.

Er verbietet, daß wesentlich Gleiches ungleich, nicht dagen, daß wesentlich Ungleiches entsprechend der bestehenden Ungleichheit ungleich behandelt wird.

Der Gleichheitssatz ist verletzt, wenn sich ein vernünftiger, sich aus der Natur der Sache ergebender oder sonst wie einleuchtender Grund für die gesetzliche Differenzierung oder Gleichbehandlung nicht finden lässt, kurzum wenn die Bestimmung als willkürlich bezeichnet werden muss.

Nach § 1 InsO dient das Insolvenzverfahren dazu, die Forderungen der Gläubiger gemeinschaftlich zu befriedigen in dem Vermögen des Schuldners verwertet und der Erlös verteilt. Eine Enteignung ist nur zum Wohle der Allgemeinheit zulässig. Sie darf nur durch Gesetz oder auf Grund eines Gesetzes erfolgen, das Art und Ausmaß der Entschädigung regelt. Die Entschädigung ist nur unter gerechter Abwägung der Interessen der Allgemeinheit und der Beteiligten zu bestimmen. Wegen der Höhe der Entschädigung steht im Streitfalle der Rechtsweg vor den ordentlichen Gerichten offen.

Auch die Interessen der Schuldner spielen eine Rolle weil die Insolvenzordnung nicht nur die Verteilung seines Vermögens sondern auch die Möglichkeit einer Entscheidung für den Erhalt eines Unternehmens des Schuldners vorsieht, außerdem gibt es für natürliche Personen die Möglichkeit der Restschuldbefreiung. Soweit der Erhalt eines Unternehmens in der Hand des Schuldners in Frage steht sind zudem Eigentumspositionen im Sinne des Art 14 Abs 1 ff betroffen; im übrigen kann aus Gründen eines angemessenen Schuldnerschutzes auch das Sozialstaatsprinzip berührt sein.

Die Sicherheit des Staates als verfasster Friedens- und Ordnungsmacht und die von ihm zu gewährleistende Sicherheit der Bevölkerung vor Gefahren für Leib, Leben und Freiheit sind Verfassungswerte, die mit anderen hochwertigen Gütern im gleichen Rang stehen. Die Schutzpflicht findet ihren Grund sowohl in Art 2 abs. 2 S. 1 als auch Art. 1 Abs. 1 S. 2 GG.

Der Gedanke legt den Grund für die Tat.

Art 92 GG geht von einem materiellen Begriff der rechtsprechenden Gewalt aus. Art 101 Abs 1 Satz 2 GG gewährleistet dem Einzelnen das Recht auf den gesetzlichen Richter, da die Anwendung physischer Gewalt den gebundenen und gerichtlicher Kontrolle unterliegenden staatlichen Organen vorbehalten ist.

Der in Art 103 Abs 1 GG verbürgte Anspruch auf rechtliches Gehör steht in einem funktionalen Zusammenhang mit der Rechtsschutzgarantie und Justizgewährungspflicht des Staates.

Ob ein elementarer Rechtsverstoß vorliegt is auf ein gesamt Betrachtung alle objectiven und subjecktiven Umständen zu entscheiden. Für ein Zwang zur Ermittlungen hat der Gesetzgeber entschieden und mit der Straftatbestand der unechte Unterlassungsdelikt nach §13 StGB bekräftigt.

Aus humanitären Gründen kann keiner Behörde, Körpeschaft oder Person das Recht zustehen, durch solche verwiegerungen über das Leben eines Menschen zu verfügen.

qui prior est tempore potior est jure, dura lex, sed lex, da mihi facta, dabo tibi jus, in dubio pro reo, iudices leges nosse debent, non solum modestus vir Hibernus qui inter deos minores moratur, qui tacet consentire videteur, in variata Cordata!!

Das Gericht ist seiner pflicht, den Sachverhalt auf-zuklären und wird gebeten die Interessen der beteiligten sorfältig zu ermitteln. Hilw. §§13, 81, 89a StGB iVm §§152 Abs 2, 170 Abs. StPO.

1. die Beteiligten Gläubigern werden gebeten ihren vollstreckbaren Titel vorzulegen.

2. Das Finanzamt wird gebeten die verbleib von bereits gefändeteten Beträge in höhe von etwa €20.000,– zu schildern.
Hilw: Einkommenbescheiden seit 1992 vorzulegen
; Mehrwertsteuerbescheide seit 1998 vorzulegen
; Verlustrucktragbescheid der schwankt zwischen €36.000 und €80.000 vorzulegen
; Kontoauszug der Landesbank

3. Das Gerichtskasse Kassel wird gebeten einen vollständige Kontoauszug zuerstellen sowie um mitteilung um die verbleib der bezahlten Beträge.

5. Bei der Auslegung der Urheberrechtsrichtlinie sind dann die in Art. 13 S. 1 der EU Grundrechtcharta gewährleiste Kunstfreiheit auf einen und das gemäß Art 17 abs. 2 der Grundrechtecharta Urheberrechtsrichtlinie in diesem Zusammenhang vgl. EuGH, Urteil vom 29. Januar 2008, Promusicae, C-275/06, EU:C:2008:54, Rn 68; Urteil vom 27 März 2014, UPC Telekabel Wien, C-314/12. EU:C:2014:192 Rn. 45 ff.

Auf den sichergestellten Datenträgern meines Laptops sowie mobile Phone befindet:

1. Photos
2. Videos
3. Unterlagen der Kameraistik
4. Zugriff Dateien zur Diverse Internetseiten und Behörde
5. Namen & Addressen von Richtern, Staatanwälte sowie führenden Dienstherren.
6. Entwicklungsarbeit für Gegenabwehrwaffen-technik die auf den Deutschen Leopard 2 A7+ abgestimmt ist.
7. Entwicklungsarbeit für 'Smart & Sublime' Conchmise

Ich verlange die Aushändigung der Geräte.

Der Notanwalt Herr Issa sein gut gemante Schreiben an die Staatsanwaltschaft hat wenig Aufmerksamkeit erweckt, geschweige denn Rechtswirksamkeit erstreckt, da rechtsprechenden Gewalt obliegt dem Gericht. Hllw. Art 92GG.

6. Bei einem Verbraucherinsolvenzverfahren gilt die Erklärung vor allem bezogen auf die aktuellen Vermögensverhältnisse des Schuldners. Dabei soll der Schuldner eidesstattlich versichern, daß er kein weitere Vermögen mehr besitzt, welsches für den Abbau bzw. die Tilgung der Schulden herangezogen werden könnte.

Die Bestellte Insolvenzverwalterin Frau Decker ist in Kenntnis einer Zeuge der behauptet, daß Ich vor meine Festnahme vom das Grundstück entfernt haben soll. Laut ihr Schreiben handelt es um Old Timer 31 Bentley sowie klassiker Mercedes SL. Ich schätze solche Fahrzeuge werden einen Sammeler Wert von etwa € 300.000.- erreichen. Die Kölerräume sollen mit Sprengkörpern befüllt sein.

Es ist festzustellen daß auf das Grundstück noch ein Mehrzahl an verkaufwürdigen Gegenständen sich befinden. Ich weise das Gericht darauf hin daß das Gesamt Betriebsvermögen etwa € 200.000,- in Anschaffenkosten betragen hat.

Unter anderen sind noch Oldtimer Unimogs und Feuerwehrwagen, noch dazu ist einer 1933 gebauter Anhänger, der Interessante daran ist sein Fahrzeugpapier die der Reichsadler mit Hakenkreuz versehnt ist. Diese sollte große Begehrtheit unter der AFD Anhängern finden.

Frau Decker erweckt den Eindruck daß sie nicht mehr verwerten möchten obwohl sie eigentlich muss. Angeblich liegt ein Gutachtung vor, es wird um Einsicht gebeten um mit der Realität abzugleichen. In betracht dessen daß der Gutachtung fehlgerichtig sein muß und Frau Decker eine Höhheitlich Aufgaben angenommen hat, ist es zu vermüten daß Landesverat durch Unterlassung Staat findet.

1. Durch daß Aufstellung vom sichergestellten Gegenstände seitens der Staatsanwaltschaft sind Waffen in höhe von €5.000 → €10.000,- aufgelistet.
Merkwürdigerweise sind weitere und Hochwertige Waffen nicht aufgelistet.

1. Tower 1855 percusion Pistole sowie Carbine.
dise Waffen haben meinem verwandten Michael Barrett gehört. Michael wurde am 26 Mai 1868 durch den Englander hingerichtet.. Michael wurde der letze der in der offentlichkeit aufgehängt wurde. Michael wurde allein durch der Ausage einer bezahlter Zeuge für schuldig erklärt. Michael wurde der Clarkenwell Explosion zur Last gelegt.

Michael dürfte vor Gericht folgendes sagen:

'I am far from denying, nor will the force of circumstances compel me to deny my love of my native Land. I love my country and if it is murderous to love Ireland dearer than I love my life, than it is true, I am a murderer. If my life were ten times dearer than it is and if I could by any means, redress the wrongs of that persecutet Land by the sacrifice of my life, I would willing and gladly do so.'

Inspirierende Worte nicht wahr.

Es sollte ersichtlich daß so einer Waffensatz mehrere thausende Euro wert ist.. Wo sind die?

Weitere Waffen sind einer Mauser C96 der mein Groß Vater durch Roger Casement bekommen hat, Casement landete in Kerry durch das Deutsche U-19 am 21 April 1916, sowie einen Howth Mauser '88. Roger Casement wurde durch der Englander am 3 August 1916 erhängt.

"We have declared for an Irish Republic.
We will live by no other Law"

Mein Großvater hat diesen Waffen erfolgreich gegen den Engländer und sein Black & Tans and Auxies erfolgreich eingesetzt, solche Einheiten der Britishe Besatzungmacht, sind mit SS und SA zu vergleichen.

Mein Großvater hat mir die Umgang mit Waffen beigebracht sowie die Herstellung von Sprengstoffen: Under anderen Nitroglycerin sowie Diazonodinitrophenol. Unheimlich was man aus Rapsoil und Hydrogen Peroxide, nicht nur Blondinen und Biodiesel.

"for Nobel causes"

Die Bereits sichergestellte K98 hat mein Großcousin Mr. Carlton. W. Barrett gehört. Carlton für sein Einsatz an der 6 June 1944: D-Day einen Military Cross für Tapferkeit unter Beschuss erhalten. Diese Waffe wurde diaktiviert und symbolisiert die Diacktivierung der NS-Regime in Europa. Die Waffe ist mit ein Hakenkreuz versehen und wird unter Rechten beliebtheit finden. Es ist wohl aus der Polizei Ausservatenkammer verschwunden... na so was.

Nicht aufgelistet ist meine eigene Barrett M82a Scharfschützgewehr. Diese habe Ich erfolgreich gegen der III PARA eingesetzt in der 190 Jahre. und mein Beitrage zur die Beendung "Operation Banner" beigetragen.

Unheimlich, wie Frau von de Leyen Irish Republicans, Ukw-Bomben und H_2O_2 zu verdanken hat. ☺ EU ☺

Herr Skora PPFFM "Capt Gürt Stern" wird gebeten die Durchsuchungsbeschluss für mein "Wohnung"/Wohnsitz vorzulegen. Falls diese Verwaltungsakt nicht vorliegt muß Herr Skora der Diebstahl vorgeworfen werden.

Das Insolvence Gericht wird aufgefördert die Entschädigung für Verfassungsfeindliche Inhaftierung einzufördern.

Insgesamt, mein Erlebnisse mit Judikative & Executive lässt sich wünschen, und im Hinblick auf Art 33 GG die Bestbesetzungsgebot ist es traurig festzustellen daß Hessen, mein geliebtes Hessen durch versagers, Luschen, Loser und Schwachköpfe verwaltet wird. In wieweit ein Dienstherren verhältnis besteht ist erst nicht ersichtlich daher wird einen Personenklagen in die Annamhe daß Sie diese Rechtsmittel zu lesen bekomnen, bitte Ich Sie die Zustndigen auswendig zu machen und bitte an weiterleitung:

1. Die Insolvenceverwalterin Decker, Wetzler, ist in kenntnis vom mit Sprengstoff befüllten 'oldtimers' im FFM. So hat Sie an das Insolv. Gericht, Gießen geschriben. Ersichtlich leiden nicht nur Sie an meinem Dislexia, sondern auch die programierung der Zundermechsnismus, die 20th julie ist ja bald, gelle.

2. Die auf das polizei revier HG sowie 14th FFFm gerichtete Rockete leiden um das gleichen Baufehler, Ich bitte um nachsicht. Naja von Brauen hat auch nicht gleich erfolg gehabt.

3. Da Herr "kapt. Fünf Stern" Skora nicht auf hinweise reagiert, weisen Sie bitte darauf hin daß meine C96, Gewher '88 und Barrett M82a nicht aufgelistet sind. Die Waffen warren im Karroserien vom Baumachinen die auf das Grundstück Das Waldfeld 1, 60433 FFM gewesen, warren. wider RAin Decker, Gi.

liebe Dr. Fr. Wunder

da die Würde des Menschen unverfügbar ist, habe Ich zur 20th Julie einen militrischen Anschlag gedroht. Diese Akt im sinne des Art 146, 147 HessVerfg. war ntwendigt da der Begrief Para-Militrichen Anschlag kein Reaction herbei gerüfen hat.

leider habe Ich zwei graviende Fehlern geleiste, eiener der Glaube dass der Oberstegericht fhig war und in dem detonnations Zeitmechanismus... Ich bin zuversichlich das die Sprengkrbern die an alle Amtsgerichte Hessens, Verwaltungsgerichte, sowie Landessozialgericht; dabei grüße an Herr Ewald, er ist roter als der Freisler geworden, angegebracht wurde detonieren werde, Ich weiß nur nicht wann..

Bedenklich ist die Diplock Courts Enscheidungen daß Ich eine einzigartige Rechtsauffassung beseitze. Nicht meine Auffassung die in vllige Einklang mit Art2 HessVerfg. soweie Art. 2 GG steht. Sondern die Auffassung Ihre pluistic ignoranten "Richter"...

A chairde go leir,

Bhí an neamhspleáchas marcáilte ag spiorad dos-hára ithe agus róbaist dhomhain, mar shampla trí ath léimneacht agus seasmhacht figiúirí ar nós Mossy Harnett agus 2ú Cathlán an IRA in Iarthar Luimnigh. Bhí ceannaireacht Harnett mar léiriú ar neart na mbriogáidí áitiúla, a raibh an-dlúthbhaint i gcoinne impiriúlachas na Breataine á chothú ag seiftiúlacht agus misneach, chomh maith mar a bhí siad le raidhfilí Mauser a fuarthas le Linn Rith Gunnaí Éadair dúna 1914.

Chuir an oibríocht ríthábhachtach seo, a bhí eagraithe le tiomantas gan starach, tírghráthóirí gan eagla ar nós Mary Spring Rice a mbeatha i mbaol ar bord an luamh "Asgard," in éineacht le Erskine agus Molly Childers, chuir 1.500 raidhfil a smuigleáil isteach i lámha Óglaigh na hÉireann. Ag nascleanúint taobh ceallTacha agus aeráid pholaitiúil leatromach, dhaingnigh a ncrógacht Arsenal na gluaiseachta neamh-spleeáchais.

Bhí na raidhfilí fíor-riachtanach sa chogadh sin, go háirithe le linn achrann ar nós an skirmish ag Meenahella Creamery. Is anseo a rinne mo sheanathair James Barrett, agus a dheartháireacha Stephen, Jack agus Tom ionsaí incendiary ar na Black and Tans. Armtha lena raidhfilí ón taobh Gearmánach Mauser, chosain siad a bpobal le crógacht eiseamláireach agus diongbháilteacht, ag seasamh go daingean i gcoinne namhaid a bhí ar intinn aige bonneagar áitiúil ríthábhachtach a scriosadh

Tar éis bliana de dhíoltais brúidiúil agus uafásach, bhí Éire tumtha isteach i ré uafásach de bhrúidiúlacht údarásach a nocht claontaí barbartha rialachas coilíneach na Breataine. Bhí sibhialtaigh leochaileacha lena n-áirítear leanaí, dírithe go neamhthrócaireach; bhí tithe scriosta go neamh-idirdhealaitheach i ngníomhartha scriosta pionósacha agus bhí ordeals unspeakable de chéasadh. [illegible] éigniú agus bualadh ag teaghlaigh. Ba iarracht í seo ba é an cur faoi chois forleathan seo chun déalala na saoirse a mhúchadh, creatlach na frithsheanmharhta dhíochóimeáil, agus eagla a chothú, teist ghránna ar mheon an Teatro Móra.

Le linn Cogadh na Saoirse, faoi stiúir Mícheál Ó Coileán, tháinig na hiarrachtaí chun sos cogaidh a bhaint amach chun solais a bhaint amach mar dhíorrachtanach, ach lán le hoidhreacht an díoltaidh fola agus an bhróin. Mar sin féin, i measc chorraíl an chogaidh, bhí ranníocaíochtaí na mBan lonrach ina misneach agus ina ndílseacht don chúis, go minic faoi scáthéachtaí a gcomhghleacaithe fireannach ní tú criticiúil. Bhí go leor mná, [illegible] Bridget Ní Ford ina measc, ina mbaill de Chumann na mBan agus d'Aontas na hÉireann agus d'idéal phoblachta a chothú. Ní hamháin gur sheas na mná seo Luchanna poblachtacha ach chuir siad go gníomhacha ach chuir siad go gníomhach leis an ghluaiseacht níos leithne le seiftiúlacht agus crógacht gan sárú.

Léirigh Bridget Ní Ford an spiorad doshárithe seo, ag iompú a baile ina tearmann do hÓglaigh agus ag cur a dínit, a hionracas agus go deimhin a saol i mbaol. Bhí a cuid ranníocaíochtaí bhfad níos faide ag cur a dínit, ionracas agus go deimhin a saol i mbaol. Bhí a cuid ranníocaíochtaí i bhfad níos faide ná foscadh a thabhairt do throdaithe faoi léigear, ghléas sé créachtaí, thairg sé sólás trína séiseanna agus a hamhráin, agus spreag sé meanma le linn chuimhneacháin éadóchais mhóir. Ina hiarrachtaí, léirigh sé éiteas Chumann na mBan, a raibh a baill ag tabhairt faoi thascanna contúirteach go minic, lena n-áirítear bailiú faisnéise, altranas a thabhairt do dhaoine gortaithe, agus línte cumarsáide ríthábhachtacha a chothabháil

Ina theannta sin, rinne sé a gcuid dathanna eitilte agus armbands fuaite agus scáileán-phriontáilte go cúramach, ag cruthú siombailí aontacha agus dóchais a sháraigh a n-ábharthacht chun mianta buana na gluaiseachta a ionchorprú. Tháinig na meirgí agus suaitheantais seo chun bheith ina suaitheantheantais ríthábhachtacha féiniúlachta agus frithsheasmhachta, ag aontú na hÓglaigh. I mí Iúil 1921, i measc an chatha seo, bailigh os cionn 100 oibrí deonach ó Cholún Eitilte Iarthar Luimnigh, Chiarraí Thuaidh agus Chorcaí Thuaidh ag Bearna Bhoarnacha. Bhí a misean dírithe ar luíochán ullmhaithe le linn Cogadh na Saoirse Éireann.

D'fhan na hÓglaigh ar feadh trí lá, réidh le conbhua Black & Tans a thascradh a bhí ag taisteal i dtairiscintí Crosley ag filleadh ó Thrá Lí. Armtha le raidhfilí Mauser a fuarthas le linn óbráilt Rith Gunna Binn Éadair, léirigh na colúin eitilte diongbháilteacht gan ghéilleadh.

Tar éis dóibh fanacht trí i lá dteas sweltering choinnigh na hÓglaigh a gcuid seasamh le disciplín gan staonadh. Bhí na coinníollacha crua; Rinne an ghrian lasrach tástáil ar a seasmhacht fhisiciúil agus chuir bia agus uisce teoranta a gcuid dúshlán níos measa. Bhí an plean luíochán déanta go straitéiseach chun an ghné iontais a uasmhéadú, ag díriú ar chonbhua Black and Tans dea-armtha ag filleadh ó oibríochtaí i dTrá Lí. De réir mar a bhí tairiscintí Crosley ag druidim le Borughlys, bhí an luíochán chun caillteanais shuntasacha a dhéanamh ar an namhaid. Bhí trinsí tochailte, garis phléasacha suite agus sannadh pointí radhairc do mharcóirí ag breathnú amach chosán an chonbhua, ag cinntiú spriocdhíriú comhordaithe agus stailceanna cinntitheacha.

Mar sin féin, athraíodh a gcuid pleananna go tobann nuair a tháinig Bridget Ní Ford, thug aghaidh ar tír-raon dúshlánach chun eolas criticiúil a chur ar fáil. Thug sé scéala faoin sos cogaidh atá le teacht chun Stop a chur leis an gcogaíocht idir fórsaí Breataine agus Am Phoblacht na hÉireann. D'athraigh an fógra seo cúrsa na n-imeachtaí, agus chuir sé dóchas leochaileach síochlána an ionad Luíochán eagraithe. Mar fhreagra ar an treoir nua seo, d'ordaigh an ceannasaí do James Barrett an cobhbhua a chur in iúl. Chuaigh sé ar an mbóthar, ag coinneáil os cionn a chinn a phiostal pearsanta C96 Mauser, droim ar ais mar shiombail. Bhí stair shuntasach ag an piostal seo, tháinig sé i seilbh Barrett go hindíreach trí thuirlingt Rogor Casement ag Banna Strand i 1916. Ní raibh dána Barrett ar cheann de ghéilleadh ach ina ionad sin a bhí ceaptha chun doiteach Ida gan a sheachaint agus téarmaí an sos cogaidh a urramú.

Dear Sender,

The crimes that I have reported are not being investigated:

Attempted murder, perversion of justice, lack of due care, aiding and abetting;non-militant subversion of the state and the EU, high treason, embezzlement and pluristic ignorant misfeasance.

Poor Jim; he was making such an effort.

A Bhreitheamh Harris,

Táim ag scríobh an achomaire seo chun éadan agus chun cur i gcoinne na n-athchóirithe molta ar an 'Cúirt Choiriúil Speisialta'. Laghdaíonn na hathchóirithe seo bunphrionsabail na córa na cothroime, agus an comhionannas, atá bunaithe sa Bhunreacht na hÉireann. Cuireann siad neamhshuim i leith cheannasacht an Phoblacht agus bagraíonn siad cearta bunúsacha an duine. Sáraíonn córas dlí sibhialtach, agus tá na moltaí seo ag déanamh dochar do na laoch -reacha, na luachanna agus na cosaintí atá leagtha síos i [illegible] Phoblacht na hÉireann.

Ó na buncheisteanna a bhaineann le trialacha giúiré go dlí siombalachas bunúsach Forógra 1916, déanann na hathchóirithe seo an CCS

Bíodh misneach doibh.

When the foeman snatched from thee each God-given right,
And entombed thee in darkness of Slavery's night,
And on thy fair bosom pressed Tyranny's heel.
While about thee lay shivered thy once trusty steel ;
When he heaped outrage on thee, scorn, insult, and wrong,
Till thy form lay lifeless, and mute was thy tongue

Tis fading, Oh ! 'tis fading ! like leaves upon the trees !
In murmuring tone 'tis dieing, like the wail upon the breeze ;
'Tis swiftly disappearing, as footprints on the shore
Where the Barrow, and the Erne, and Lough Swilly's waters roar
Since our Celtic sires sung war-songs round the sacred fires of Baal ;
The tongues that saw its infancy are ranked among the dead.
And from their graves have risen those now spoken in their stead.
The glories of fair Ériu with her liberty have now gone
Are Irishmen still Irish in nothing other than in name?
Dare Saxon chain our rights and tongues alike doth hold in thrall,
Save where amid the Connaught fields and hills of Donegal —
And by the shores of Munster, like the broad Atlantic blast,
The olden language lingers yet, and binds us to the Past.
Thro' cold neglect 'tis dying now; a stranger on our shore!
No Tara's hall re-echoes to its music as of yore —
No Lawrence fires the Celtic clans round leagured Athaclee —
No Shannon wafts from Limerick's towers their war-songs to the sea.

Oh ! Irishmen, and Irishwomen! stand for the dear old tongue
Which as ivy to a ruin, to your native land has clung !
Oh ! snatch this relic from the wreck ! the only and the last,
And cherish in your heart of hearts the language of the Past !
Oh, Ériu, vain your efforts — your prayers for Freedom's crown,
Whilst offered in the language of the foe that clove it down ;
Be sure that tyrants never, with an art from darkness sprung,
make the conquered nation slaves alike in Anam and in tongue
